

TC009 – User is able to enable/disable input field and add/delete checkbox

№	Step	Expected result
1.	Navigate to Heroku App	App is successfully loaded
2.	Click on “Dynamic Controls” link	Dynamic Controls page is opened in the same window. Following text: This example demonstrates when elements (e.g., checkbox, input field, etc.) are changed asynchronously. Remove/add section: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A checkbox (unselected by default)• Remove button Enable/disable section: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Input field (disabled by default)• Enable button
3.	Select checkbox	Checkbox is successfully checked
4.	Click “Remove” button	Wait for it loader is shown. Checkbox is removed successfully It's gone! Text is shown after removing Add button is appeared
5.	Click on “Add” button	Wait for it loader is shown. Checkbox is shown It's back! Text is shown after adding Remove button is shown
6.	Go to Enable/disable section Click on “Enable” button	Wait for it loader is shown. Input field becomes enabled. It's enabled! Text is shown Disable button is shown
7.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Enter any text into input field• Click Disable button	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Text is successfully entered• Input filed becomes disabled and entered text is saved and not editable• It's disabled! Text is shown• Enable button is shown
8.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Click on “Enable” button• Add/Edit text in field• Click Disable button	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Wait for it loader is shown. Input field becomes enabled. It's enabled! Text is shown Disable button is shown• Text is successfully entered/edited• Input filed becomes disabled and entered text is saved and not editable It's disabled! Text is shown Enable button is shown
9.	Reload the page	The same expected result as in step 2