

TC0020 – User is able to work with alerts

№	Step	Expected result
1.	Navigate to Heroku App	App is successfully loaded
2.	Click on “JavaScript Alerts” link	JavaScript Alerts page is opened in the same window. Here are some examples of different JavaScript alerts which can be troublesome for automation Buttons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Click for JS Alert • Click for JS Confirm • Click for JS Prompt Result:
3.	Click on “Click for JS Alert” button	Alert is shown: the-internet.herokuapp.com says I am a JS Alert OK button
4.	Click on “OK” button	Alert is closed. Result: You successfully clicked an alert
5.	Click on “Click for JS Confirm” button	Alert is shown: the-internet.herokuapp.com says I am a JS Alert <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OK button • Cancel button
6.	Click on “OK” button	Alert is closed. Result: You clicked: Ok
7.	Repeat step 5	The same expected result
8.	Click on “Cancel” button	Alert is closed. Result: You clicked: Cancel
9.	Click on “Click for JS Prompt” button	Alert is shown: the-internet.herokuapp.com says I am a JS Alert <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Input text field • OK button • Cancel button
10.	Leave field empty and click “OK” button	Alert is closed. Result: You entered:
11.	Repeat step 9	The same expected result
12.	Leave field empty and click “Cancel” button	Alert is closed. Result: You entered: null
13.	Repeat step 9	The same expected result
14.	Enter any text into field and click “OK”	Alert is closed.

		Result: You entered: {entered text}
15.	Repeat step 9	The same expected result
16.	Enter any text into field and click “Cancel”	Alert is closed. Result: You entered: null